Social Media Policy

1. Overview

1.1 This policy explains your responsibilities when you use social media, both on Company premises and in your own time.

1.2 It applies to all employees and to anyone else working for the Company. It does not form part of your contract of employment and can be amended at any time.

1.3 Your use of social media may, along with your wider use of Company IT resources, be monitored to make sure you are complying with this policy. Whenever you use our IT resources and systems, you give us your consent to monitor your activities.

1.4 If you breach this policy you may face action under our disciplinary procedure. We may require you to remove any social media content that in itself breaches this policy and may invoke the disciplinary procedure if you fail to do so. In addition, you could face legal proceedings if comments you post about the Company or named individuals are found to have harmed their reputation.

2. What is social media?

2.1 We define social media as websites and applications that allow users to create and share content and/or take part in online networking. The most popular sites include the following:

- Facebook
- Twitter
- LinkedIn
- YouTube
- Google+
- Instagram
- Pinterest
- Flickr
- Tumblr
- Reddit.

2.2 This policy also covers personal blogs, any posts you might make on other people's blogs, and to all online forums and noticeboards.

3. Using social media at work

3.1

You may use Company IT resources and your own equipment to access social media during work hours as long as you follow this policy and you are not involved in creating any inappropriate or unprofessional content. Your use must also not interfere with your duties.

3.2 You must not post personal content on any Company social media account you are authorised to use. These accounts belong to us, and your access will be stopped if you abuse this policy in any way. If you leave the Company your access will also be stopped and we will ask for your user names and passwords. We may also ask for them at any other time and in either case you must supply them on request.

4. Your responsibilities when using social media

4.1 Always identify yourself and make it clear your opinions are your own and you are not speaking on the Company's behalf. You might consider doing this in a disclaimer. Use a personal email address, not your Company email address, and do not create a social media account that could be mistaken for a corporate account we have set up, or could set up.

4.2 It is your duty to protect the company's interests and you must not publish anything that could directly or indirectly damage these or compromise our reputation. You must never speak on the Company's behalf on social media unless authorised to do so and you must always make sure anything you do post is accurate and lawful. Always get your colleagues' permission before posting images of them or any of their personal details.

4.3 You must take personal responsibility for your social media content. If you can be identified as working for the Company, you must make sure your profiles, and anything you post, are congruent with how we expect you to present yourself to business associates and colleagues. Be mindful that even if you do not name us as your employer, people who know you and where you work may still make an unwelcome association with the Company. If you are in any doubt about what is and is not acceptable, please talk to your manager.

4.4 You must always show respect to others when using social media. You must never criticise the Company, our clients, suppliers, business associates, your colleagues or anybody else you come into contact with professionally. Our other policies — in particular those covering harassment and bullying and equal opportunities LSA Montessori give guidance on the type of behaviour we consider unacceptable in the workplace, and we expect you to maintain the same high standards when using social media. Specifically, we will not tolerate any of the following:

- abusive or threatening language
- sexually explicit language
- unlawful or disrespectful comments
- false or misleading statements
- impersonating your colleagues or third parties
- inciting somebody to commit a crime.

If another Company employee is bullying, harassing or victimising you using social media, you must follow the process laid out in our harassment and bullying policy

4.5 You are obliged to respect Company confidentiality at all times and not to use social media to comment on sensitive business matters, including — but not restricted to — the following:

- our intellectual property
- our trade secrets
- our current or future trading performance
- any information intended for internal use only
- anything else that is not already in the public domain.

We also insist that you never use our logo, trademark, or other corporate artwork in anything you post or as part of any of your social media profiles.

4.6 You must remain aware at all times of the public nature of social media. Even content posted on a restricted forum can quickly be shared across other social media and you must assume that anything you publish anywhere will sooner or later reach the public domain. When you share content posted by others, remember that you may be seen as giving tacit approval to opinions that could bring the Company into disrepute.

4.7 You must never air grievances about the Company or any of its activities on social media. You should use our internal process if you want to make a complaint, raising it first with your manager. If the issue remains unresolved, you must then follow the formal grievance procedure.

5. Other social media guidance

5.1 Always respect copyright and always check whether or not a third party's content is protected before you reuse or re-post it.

5.2 You are not allowed to add the details of business contacts you make while at work to any of your personal social media accounts.

5.3 You should contact the Managing Director if you find anything posted to a social media site that breaches this policy or otherwise brings the Company into disrepute.
